

about the studio

STUDIO FOR THE LIVING ARTS DANCE COMPLEX

Studio for the Living Arts was established in 1992 with a focus on bringing the arts to the community of Gray. Since then, the studio has grown to include students of all ages from over 20 + surrounding towns including Falmouth, Cumberland, Yarmouth, Windham, Raymond, and other Greater Portland areas. The studio offers an educational and challenging class environment with an outstanding teaching faculty. Every instructor specializes in the discipline of their class which provides a broad range of styles to the curriculum. Courses are offered in jazz, ballet, pointe, tap, hip-hop, lyrical, acro, gymnastics, contemporary, musical theater dance, and creative movement.

OUR VISION

Our goal is for every student to enjoy dance while learning proper technique. We offer a fresh and innovative dance program expanding the standard dance curriculum. Our professional faculty and high energy atmosphere provides complete and personalized dance training to both the recreational dancer as well as the serious student who is looking to train intensively.

Our entire staff is committed to the highest quality of instruction and we continuously strive to raise dance standards by renewing and updating our teaching skills. From the finest classical ballet, to the latest hip-hop styles, dance can enhance the lives of all people and it can be an integral part of the development of every child.
